

A small reminder:

	Nominative	Dative	Accusative
Singular	I you he/ she/ it	me you him/ her/ it	me you him/ her/ it
Plural	we you they	us you them	us you them

1) Now you try to solve these easy tasks:

_____ am from Austria.

Can _____ see me? Yes, _____ can.

This boy speaks English because _____ is from the USA.

The girls over there are from my class. _____ are very clever.

Girls, girls, _____ should not be so loud!

Latin is a very old language. _____ is quite difficult to learn.

_____ all come from Austria. Austria is our home country.

I know a girl from England. _____ is very nice.

Are _____ from Scotland?

What was the weather like? _____ was raining.

II) Some trickier examples:

Use a pronoun instead of the words in brackets.

My mother is in hospital. She (my mother) is very ill.

I have to cook for _____ (all the people in the house).

Mary took a photo of _____ (John).

Where is Sue? I spoke to _____ (Sue) a moment ago.

I think we will all enjoy _____ (the trip).

I feel sorry for _____ (the girls).

Do you like the dress? I will get _____ (the dress) for you.

She is looking at _____ (the picture).

The children are talking to _____ (their mother).

III) Choose the correct answer.

Only one answer is correct.

Where are the books? I can't see _____.

- a) it b) you c) them d) her

Bill and I are in the garden. _____ want to pick the apples.

- a) them b) we c) they d) he

Mary is talking to _____.

- a) they b) she c) your d) them

Barbara is looking at _____.

- a) us b) there c) we d) they

My mother always cooks for _____.

- a) he b) she c) it d) me

Solutions:

I) Now you try to solve these easy tasks:

I am from Austria.

Can you see me? Yes, I can.

This boy speaks English because he is from the USA.

The girls over there are from my class. They are very clever.

Girls, girls, you should not be so loud!

Latin is a very old language. It is quite difficult to learn.

We all come from Austria. Austria is our home country.

I know a girl from England. She is very nice.

Are you from Scotland?

What was the weather like? It was raining!

II) Use a pronoun instead of the words in brackets.

My mother is in hospital. She (my mother) is very ill.

I have to cook for them (all the people in the house).

Mary took a photo of him (John).

Where is Sue? I spoke to her (Sue) a moment ago.

I think we will all enjoy it (the trip).

I feel sorry for them (the girls).

Do you like the dress? I will get it (the dress) for you.

She is looking at it (the picture).

The children are talking to her (their mother).

III) Choose the correct answer. Only one answer is correct.

Where are the books? I can't see c).

- a) it b) you c) them d) her

Bill and I are in the garden. b) want to pick the apples.

- a) them b) we c) they d) he Mary is talking to d).

- a) they b) she c) your d) them

Barbara is looking at a).

- a) us b) there c) we d) they

My mother always cooks for d).

- a) he b) she c) it d) me